

THE JACKSON LABORATORY 2024 CONNECTICUT ECONOMIC IMPACT REPORT

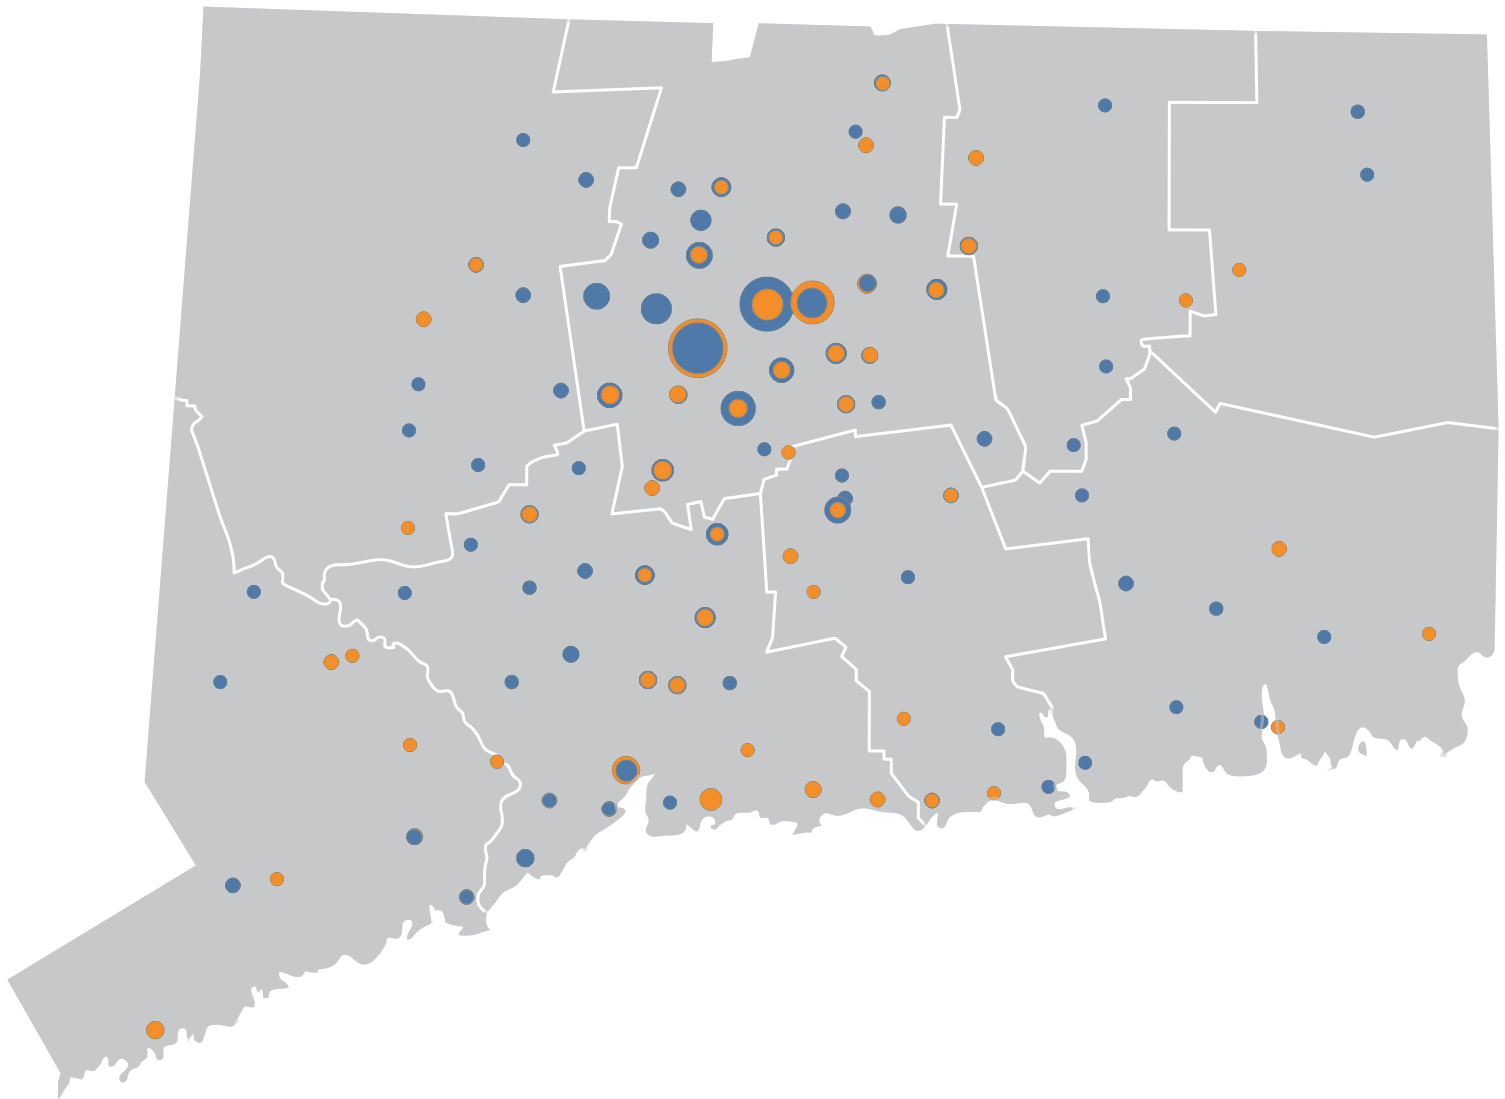

Data taken from January 1 to December 31, 2023

The Jackson Laboratory (JAX) is an independent 501(c)(3), nonprofit biomedical research institution and has a National Cancer Institute-designated Cancer Center (since 1983). JAX has more than 3,000 employees worldwide, including five U.S. locations. Headquartered in Bar Harbor, Maine, JAX also has facilities in Farmington, Conn., Sacramento, Calif., and Ellsworth, Portland and Augusta, Maine.

In FY2023, JAX had an operating revenue of $620 million with approximately $477 million from the mouse sales and services division, $112 million from grants and research contracts, and $12 million from other sources, including contributions and investments. Overall, in 2023, JAX had an economic impact of more than $1.2 billion.

Vendor and employee locations in Connecticut

JAX paid 240 Connecticut-based vendors ● more than $10.3M in 2023.
These vendors are located in 70 communities across the state.

JAX paid $37M in wages to 350 Connecticut-based employees ● in 2023.
Employees live in 98 towns across the state.

Economic growth between 2021, 2022 and 2023

Average salaries

New hires

A PUBLICATION OF THE JACKSON LABORATORY
www.jax.org

